Der in Kairo zum erstenmal im Jahre 1321 gedruckte 30bändige Qorankommentar des Ṭabari enthält am Schluß ein ausführliches Register, in dem die besprochenen Stellen des Qoran verzeichnet sind. Wie gewöhnlich in orientalischen Drucken sind weder von den Suren noch von den Versen die Zahlen angegeben. Der muslimische Gelehrte, der den Qoran auswendig kennt, findet sich darnach leicht zurecht. Der nichtmuslimische Arabist wird bei der Benutzung des Registers erst eine Konkordanz zu Hilfe nehmen müssen, um zu wissen, wo die betreffende Stelle im Qoran steht. Auch einen bestimmten Qoranvers kann er nicht ohne weiteres im Kommentar nachschlagen. Ich habe daher auf die Anregung des Herrn Prof. Lidzbarski hin ein Register ausgearbeitet, in dem die einzelnen Verse der Reihe nach nach der Qoranausgabe von Flügel angegeben sind. Bei den ersten 9 Suren habe ich jeden Vers verzeichnet. Da von den übrigen Suren meist mehrere Verse auf einer Seite besprochen sind, schien es mir am zweckmäßigsten, für jede Seite des Kommentars den ersten der darauf besprochenen Verse anzugeben. Wenn mehrere Verse, die in einer Erklärung zusammengefaßt sind, auf 2 und mehr Seiten besprochen sind, habe ich es der größeren Übersichtlichkeit wegen besonders vermerkt durch Angabe des ersten und letzten Verses. Die Suren 99—114, die als ganze kommentiert sind, sind dementsprechend auch ohne Verseinteilung aufgeführt.

Eine zweite Ausgabe des Kommentars wurde vom Buchhändler al Ḥaššâb in Kairo unternommen, und einige Bände sind erschienen. Nach eingezogenen Erkundigungen ist aber ihr Abschluß, vielleicht überhaupt eine Fortsetzung, in absehbarer Zeit nicht zu erwarten. Daher wurde das Register ohne Rücksichtnahme auf dieses Unternehmen ausgearbeitet.
